

Regional Innovation for Green Growth
has the pleasure to invite you to a seminar:

A³: Adapt, Advance, Accelerate: Regional Roadmaps for moving to low carbon green growth

7th October 2014, 14:30 – 17:00

Greater Birmingham & West Midlands Brussels Office
Avenue Auderghem 22-28, 1040 Brussels

This debate will focus on 'Smart Regional Strategies for a Low Carbon Transition' showcasing the implementation of the low carbon agenda at a regional level across Europe, and its deployment through a wide range of innovative solutions.

It will bring together regional and local representatives and experts to discuss the Regional Innovation and Implementation model (RIC), developed by the Knowledge and Innovation Community on Climate Change (Climate-KIC) and supported by the European Institute for Innovation and Technology (EIT).

City and Regional representatives will present their experiences in accelerating the transition to a low carbon economy in Europe, highlighting the strong synergies between Horizon 2020 and the Structural Funds, as well as providing concrete case study examples of activities developed by the Climate-KIC.

The debate will be chaired by Mr Richard Tuffs, Director of ERRIN and will be followed by a cocktail reception.
